What ' s the most important lesson they can teach you? The answer is hard work! Young children start at an early age by cleaning stalls for riding time. After working hard all day, the biggest reward is going for a ride. As you get older, your hard work helps you advance your riding skills, win a blue ribbon, keep a barn tidy, and buy your first horse.

What Horses Can Teach Us About Ourselves. ... Most of us horses are that way. We just shut down inside when we are around people, so most of the time we don ' t even know how we feel or what we think because we have to hide those feelings away in order to keep on going. We assume that no one really cares about what we have to say anyway.
