The doctrine of universalism, propagated by Origen (185-254 AD), makes the claim that every person who has lived in this world, all through its existence, and no matter their way of life and belief system, will ultimately be eternally saved. Additionally, even angelic beings, who sided with Satan in his rebellion against his Creator, will somehow receive forgiveness and thereby avoid eternal punishment, despite the severity of their sinful actions.

Will Everyone Be Saved in the End? | Churches of God

Some people believe that everyone will be saved. Others think that the majority will be saved, so they just go along with the crowd in spiritual matters. As long as everybody's doing a thing it must be all right, because "surely all these people can't be wrong!"

How many people will be saved: everyone, most, or a few?

Saved in Three Tenses —Have been saved, are being saved, shall be saved. This lesson may seem to be a statement of the obvious. However what is obvious to some is not obvious to others. The Scriptures speak of being saved in three tenses and senses. In one place the scriptures say that we "have been saved" (past).

How can I be saved? What do I need to do? “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved” (Acts 16:31). God has already done all of the work. All you must do is receive, in faith, the salvation God offers (Ephesians 2:8-9). Fully trust in Jesus alone as the payment for your sins. Believe in Him, and you will not perish (John 3:16).

How can I be saved? | GotQuestions.org

There is coming a day, I think Paul says, when there will be a great turning of Israel to Jesus her Messiah, and the whole ethnic group of Israel will be saved by trusting in Jesus. I think that is what Paul is talking about in Romans 11:25–26 where he says, “I do not want you to be unaware of this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.

Notice too that Paul did not say, “ women will be saved [by] childbearing ” but “ women will be saved through childbearing. ” . He intentionally and specifically used the word “ through ” because this word is most commonly used in the phrase “ through faith. ” . We are saved “ by grace ” and “ through faith. ” . Therefore, 1 Timothy 2:15 which states “ women will be saved through childbearing – if they continue in faith ” probably means what every other part of Scripture means ...
